

a place of mind
THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Vancouver Summer Programs

July 18 – August 18, 2015

The Vancouver Summer Program (VSP) is a four week academic program in Canada offered by various faculties at the University of British Columbia for cohorts of students from partner universities. The program includes two courses and social cultural activities:

- Study two academic courses at one of the world's 40 Top Universities in beautiful Vancouver
- Experience Canadian culture through fun social and cultural activities
- Meet Canadian students and students from other universities

Choose Courses from:

- Architecture, Arts, Business, Dentistry, Education, Forestry, Kinesiology, Land & Food Systems, Law & Medicine

Find out more at our Information Session!

TIME: 7:30 PM – 8:30 PM

DATE: Friday, September 19, 2014

VENUE: Room 102, Building Nanqiang 2

a place of mind

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

The University of British Columbia

The University of British Columbia is a global centre for research and teaching, consistently ranked among the 40 best universities in the world. UBC is home to more than 58,000 undergraduate, graduate, and international students. With $564 million research funding, UBC creates an exceptional learning environment that fosters global citizenship, advances a civil and sustainable society, and supports outstanding research to serve the people of British Columbia, Canada and the world. UBC's Vancouver campus is located on the coast, in beautiful Vancouver BC, home of the 2010 Winter Olympics.

Speaker: Sven Clarke

Sven is a Senior Student Advisor for the University of British Columbia and will speak to students and staff at Xiamen University about Vancouver Summer Programs at The University of British Columbia this summer 2015. Sven also advises students about undergraduate and graduate studies at the University.

